Announcing A Different Trip To Israel

A unique opportunity is available to families looking for a different experience in Israel. This December, under the aegis of the High School Department, a tour, supervised by Peter Geffen, Principal of the High School Department, escorted by a member of the faculty of the High School and taught by outstanding Israeli guides, experts in the desert life of the country, will spend two weeks in Israel during the traditional period of mid-winter vacation.

This two week experience is a specially designed program to emphasize the natural beauty of the Land of Israel with a focus on camping and hiking in the Sinai and Judaean deserts.

It is hoped that the exploration of the flora and wildlife of the desert, the exotic life of its Bedouin inhabitants and the mystical beauty that emanates from its sands and mountains will allow families the rare experience of learning together in a world that both children and adults can appreciate.

Participants will travel in rugged desert vehicles (command cars) and will sleep in sleeping bags, sharing meals (kosher) prepared over an open fire. In order to allow for the participation of grandparents, or other family members, who may not wish the desert camping experience, arrangements have been made at the Caravan Hotel in Eilat for 5 nights—while the main group is in the desert—with provision made for two day-long sightseeing trips into the local Negev and Sinai deserts.

Eight nights will be spent in Jerusalem with day trips into the Judean desert.

This program has been made possible through a grant from the Fund for Jewish Education of the Board of Jewish Education of Greater New York. Travelships are available.

Cost of the trip which includes round trip air fare between New York and Tel Aviv and Jerusalem and Eilat, bed and breakfast during hotel stays, all camping equipment and meals in the Sinai and all transfers is $1494 for adults; $971 for children (age 2-12) and $1439 for adults remaining in the Eilat hotel.

For further information call Peter Geffen, TE 1-8686.

NEW BUILDING NEARS COMPLETION Contractors Rush To Meet Schedule For The High Holy Days

The sultry heat of summer slowed somewhat the tempo of work on the new building, but as Rosh Hashanah approaches the pace of the construction has quickened. It is expected that the new Hall of Worship, the Appleman Chapel and the school will be ready for use, as planned, by the High Holy Days and for the first days of school.

Throughout July and August, as each step in the process of construction became apparent, various neighborhood sidewalk superintendents expressed their delight to the officers of the congregation on the beauty of the building which, they felt, added dignity to the neighborhood. The high point was the removal of the scaffolding which had hidden the facade of the building for such a long time.

Congregation Gathers For High Holy Days

The end of the year 5740 and the beginning of the year 5741 is fast upon us. Signalling the approach of the High Holy Day season is the sounding of the shofar in the synagogue during the month of Elul. Also, in preparation for the mood and substance of the days of repentance is the service of Selihot, which, this year, takes place on Saturday evening, September 6.

Prior to the Selihot service, the congregation is invited to a coffee hour beginning at 8:15 P.M. followed by a lecture by Rabbi Wechsler on "Genes, Psychobiology and Maimonides." This lecture focuses on the themes of the High Holy Days.

After the lecture, the congregation will be treated to a special choral meditation presented by the Synagogue Choir which will enable them to enter the mood of these holy days—these "Days of Awe"—as they enter the Sanctuary.

The schedule of services for the High Holy Days can be found on page 2 of this issue of the BULLETIN. On page 6 are listed the times of the Junior Services. This year, for the first time, babysitting for very young children and for children ages 4-7 is available. See the School News column on page 6 for details on how you can take advantage of this new program.

On page 3, a tear-off is provided for those who wish to eat in the Sukkah. All reservations will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

All of us wish all of you and your loved ones a very happy and healthy New Year! L'Shanah Tovah.

In an interview at the end of August, Larry Capelli and Lou Katsos, representing Morse/Diesel, reported that it was their expectation that the building would be operational by Rosh Hashanah, although many finishing touches would have to be completed after the High Holy Days.

Building Fund Appeal Continues

Efforts to encourage new gifts and pledges to the Building Fund were also very much in evidence. Signs and plaques are being prepared for the rooms and areas which have been reserved as honoraria or memorials for loved ones. Also, efforts are being made to accelerate the pace of contributions so that the new building can be finished without long-term mortgage debt.

Irving Friedman, Treasurer for the Building Fund Committee, told this reporter, "It would be best for our Synagogue to avoid debt and interest charges. We must try to finish as close as possible to a pay-as-you-go plan."

New Gifts Announced

In the meantime, important new gifts were announced. Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. Raticoff have dedicated a waiting lounge on the second floor in memory of their parents and Tess Weill has dedicated a waiting lounge on the main floor in memory of her husband, Milton Weill. Mr. Weill served as an officer and Trustee of the congregation for many years. A generous gift was received from Herman Seid, an Executor from the Estate of Oscar Friedlander, in memory of Dorothy and Abraham Geller.

Members who are interested in establishing an honorarium or memorial are urged to call George Shapiro at the earliest opportunity.

A Trip To Remember

Two days ago — as I write this — we returned from Poland where we were witness to the death of a people — our people. For eight days we toured this land where once a Jewish community of three and a half million Jews lived, created, laughed and loved. We walked the streets of great cities like Warsaw, Cracow, Bialystok, Lublin and Lodz and we could imagine the vibrant pulsating places they once were. Now the Jewish presence has been silenced forever. All vestiges of Jewish institutions and schools, synagogues and yeshivot are obliterated as though they never were. We experienced too the agony of visiting those places that defy description — Treblinka, Majdanek and Auschwitz. For years we have heard, we have read, and we have seen films of these places out of hell but not until we stood on the same ground did we realize the full impact of the demonic evil which was unleashed upon the world and which devoured our people.

One is tempted to despair over the future of humanity after such a catastrophic event in history. All that we have ever believed in and hoped for, all our values and attitudes, our faith in the innate goodness of man — these are all turned topsy-turvy when visiting these places. The tradition of the liberal has always led him to believe in education, enlightenment and progress. We have been in the line of this tradition and our faith is sorely tried.

But — and this is crucial — we do belong to a people whose greatest asset has been its faith. So we cannot throw in the sponge and let cynicism and bitterness overcome us. We cannot give the victory to the satanic forces of evil. We must follow the admonition which we saw inscribed in Yiddish on a Torah scroll in Warsaw —

The Dedication Ball
Will Take Place
December 6, 1980

The Dedication Ball, the first social event of its kind in the history of Park Avenue Synagogue, will take place in the NEW Lemberg Auditorium on Saturday evening, December 6, 1980.

The Dedication Ball, and the events which will precede it through the week, will celebrate and commemorate the greatest effort in the history of the Park Avenue Synagogue family, the completion of the new school building. The building of this addition to the physical plant of the synagogue has been a mighty effort, taking almost ten years to complete.

There have been two prior dedication ceremonies in the history of the synagogue — the first to dedicate the sanctuary building in 1927 and the second to dedicate The Milton Steinberg House in 1954—but there never has been a Dedication Ball.

For this reason, General Chairmen Bea Kaplan and Annette Sherman, assisted by Reception Chairman Edna Altman, look to this gala evening as the most dazzling social event in the history of the Park Avenue Synagogue.

Initial response to the concept of The Dedication Ball has been so strong that the chairmen are cheered that the size of the Lemberg Auditorium has been doubled as a result of the new addition to the physical plant!

The Dedication Journal

A conjunct activity to The Dedication Ball is The Dedication Journal. Proceeds from The Dedication Journal will be applied to the operating budget of the synagogue. Chairman Rosalie Friedman and her committee have been working since last May to obtain ads and listings for the Journal. Before the summer, response to their first mailing to the congregation was most encouraging. Those of you who were not able to respond before the summer will have another opportunity to do so, as a second mailing to the congregation was made September 1. For your convenience, an ad blank is included in this issue of the BULLETIN as well. The committee wishes to convey to the congregation family the importance of its contribution to the success of the Journal. As a historic keepsake, it is felt that every family will wish to be able to show their descendants their participation in the historic development of the synagogue.

Kick-Off Reception

A Kick-Off Reception is planned by the chairmen of the committees who will work on the various aspects of The Dedication Ball. Volunteers are welcome to join the committees-in-information. Please call the Synagogue Office or the general chairmen today and volunteer your services.

"What Can I Do Now?"

In answer to the question "What can I do now?", you can

1. Save the date December 6, 1980 and plan to attend The Dedication Ball;
2. Mail in your advertisement or listing to The Dedication Journal committee;
3. Volunteer to serve on The Dedication Ball or Journal committees.

Music And The High Holy Days

Perhaps no other medium unites us so closely with the emotions, joys and pains of all generations of Jews as does the prayer chant and the musical renditions of the High Holy Day prayers.

The music at Park Avenue Synagogue's High Holy Day services spans the creativity of several centuries. It includes many classics of the 19th and early 20th century masters, as well as many compositions of modern composers, including some lovely works by our organist, Neil Robinson.

Our services also enjoy the rich tradition of our synagogue's own congregational melodies. Many of these have been sung with great feeling and nostalgia for over half a century — dating back to the cantorial ministry of Cantor Abraham Sukoenig.

This music expresses our prayers, our yearnings, our needs as human beings and as Jews. As we enter our beautiful new building, may our prayers for the New Year be fulfilled — for a good year of life.

— David Lefkowitz

Journal Committee Asks For Speedy Return Of Ad Contract

Take a moment now to fill out and return The Dedication Journal Ad Contract you received in the mail this week. Your tax-deductable contribution, in the form of an ad or a listing, will ensure that the synagogue will have the operating funds necessary to carry on its programs in the coming year.

The Dedication Journal, an associated project to The Dedication Ball, will not only serve as a symbol of support, but also will be a historic document of merit, tracing the architectural history of our congregation over the past 100 years. Every member of the congregation will want to add this historic publication to his or her library.

Rosalie Friedman and her committee: Robert Altman, Estelle Berger, Gail Brown and Dennis Karr, Arthur Fine, Irving Friedman, Stanley Gluck, David and DeeDee Goldstick, Mina Klein, Ira Lee, Helen and Herman Levine, Martin Milston, Letty Osserman, Jack Raticoff, Marguerite Rollin, Hilda Rosenblum, Arnold L. Sabin, Claire Schussler, Abraham I. Sherr and Esther Woolf, assisted by Evalyn Yudkoff as Treasurer, are hard at work to make sure that the Journal is the success it should be.

Don't wait to be called. Do your part now. The committee looks for 100% participation on the part of the members of the congregation. If the synagogue membership responds on its own, then the energies of the committee can be directed toward the community at large.

Preview Of Courses Offered By Adult Ed.

The Sherr Institute for Adult Jewish Studies is pleased to preview the program of Adult Jewish Studies for the 1980-81 year. A full description of all courses is contained in the brochure which every congregant will receive soon. Since several courses start at the beginning of October, now is the time to think and to plan to study with your friends in the congregational family this year.

On Wednesday evening, October 8 at 8 P.M., Rabbi Wechsler will begin a ten-session course entitled "Talmud For The Non-Talmudist." This course will be a beginner's introduction to the Talmud, sampling both the law and lore of this great classic of the Jewish Tradition, with an emphasis on learning the techniques needed to read a Talmud text.

Beginning on Monday, October 6, Hebrew courses will be offered by Mrs. Vivian Finkel on the beginner, intermediate and advanced levels. These classes will meet during the day. Mr. Mark Kushner, our Assistant Cantor, will teach the evening beginner's class in Hebrew, Mondays at 8 P.M.

And every Saturday afternoon, beginning October 4, Rabbi Wechsler will teach a course on the Torah commentaries of Rashi at 5 P.M., immediately prior to the Service at 5:45 P.M.

Full details and the program for the year will be found in the Adult Education brochure.

Don't put it off for another time. Come study this New Year!

Singles Invited To Supper In Sukkah

Single members of the congregation between the ages of 30 and 50 are invited by the Board of Park Avenue Synagogue Singles to Supper in the Sukkah, Sunday, September 28 at 6 P.M.

The cost of the dinner is $9.

Since the Sukkah is limited in size, it is possible to accommodate only 25 men and 25 women. If you are single and interested in attending this first event of the Singles group this year, please call Rabbi Wechsler's office, 369-2600. An invitation will be mailed to you which you then will be able to return. It may be possible to invite friends of members of the congregation for this evening event, but this can only be decided after the membership has had an opportunity to R.S.V.P.

"Everyone's participation is vital," says Chairperson Rosalie Friedman. "We look to the congregation to help us help it!"

New Musical Settings Sung At High Holy Days Services

"TIKU VAHODESH SHOFAR—Sound The Shofar" is the title of a new composition for cantor, choir and organ written by our cantor, David Lefkowitz. The text (Psalm 81:4-5) appears at dramatic points in the Evening Service and the Musaf Service of Rosh Hashanah. This piece is among several which the cantor and choir will sing for the first time at our High Holy Day Services this year.

Also sung will be some settings of the prayers by the late, legendary cantor of Chicago, Todros Greenberg, which have been arranged for the modern synagogue by the composer Sholom Kalib, who worked for two decades transcribing Greenberg's music. Kalib is now Professor of Music at Michigan University. The settings include "Venislah lekhlo adat," "Yaaleh," and "Omnah Ken" from the Yom Kippur Eve liturgy.

W.E.G. Members To Sup In New Sukkah

The Women's Evening Group invites its members and their families and prospective members and their families to join them for supper in the Sukkah, Monday, September 29 at 6:30 P.M.

Save the date now and plan to attend Wednesday, October 15 at 8 P.M. when Parents Association invites all parents of children attending the Nursery, Primary, Elementary and High School Departments of the Mazer School of Religious Studies to a Welcome Party.

This party will give everybody an opportunity to meet and greet the staff, class mothers and each other so that we can begin the year on a social note.

Wine and cheese will be served. Questions will be answered. Tours through the new building will be featured. We will celebrate in the new Lemberg Auditorium.

Parents whose children attend the Mazer School of Religious Studies in all its departments – Early Childhood Center, Primary and Elementary Departments and High School Department – are cordially invited to attend the first Board Meeting of Parents Association, Tuesday, September 16 at 8 P.M.

It is the wish of the officers and board members of Parents Association to involve all parents in the planning of its programs for the coming year.

The facilities of the new building offer an opportunity, never before available, to enhance the program of Parents Association. The organization hopes that the interest of the parent body will enable it to greatly enrich the programs which the school offers the children.
